

THINGS YOU OTTER KNOW!

Alamance Community College - Prospective Student Newsletter - January 2022

Enrolling Now! Spring Semester starts January 10th!

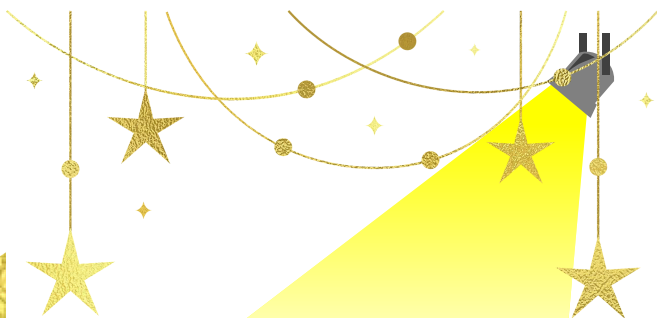

Did you know ACC offers 4 learning formats? and that each format has a special mark in your schedule?

- On-Campus learning: course section ends with a number from 01-79
- Online Learning: course section ends with "E"
- Live Interaction: course section ends with "EL"
- Hybrid/Blended: course section ends with "H"

'HAW'PPY NEW YEAR!

2022

Department Spotlight! Medical Assisting

Contact us for Questions!

336-506-4213 or

Email:

mdtorain364@alamancecc.edu

Discover Medical Assisting!

The Medical Assisting curriculum prepares multi-skilled health care professionals qualified to perform administrative, clinical, and laboratory procedures.

What You'll Learn:

Course work includes scheduling appointments, coding and processing insurance accounts, billing, collections, computer operations, assisting with examinations or treatments, performing laboratory procedures, electrocardiography, supervised medication administration, ethical/legal issues associated with patient care.

Employment in This Field Include:

Upon graduation students are eligible to work in physician's offices, health maintenance organizations, health departments, hospital clinics, insurance companies, and pharmaceutical companies.

Follow us on social media!

Questions? Contact Stephanía Garzón - sgarzon519@alamancecc.edu